

Should there be tougher graduation requirements for high school students

State lawmakers are trying to curb the number of teenage smokers. Do you think teachers shouldn't be allowed to smoke at school to set an example

The nation's students received a bad report card in basic reading and writing skills. What should be done to improve the situation

There has been a lot of talk about extending the school year. Do you think it is a good idea

What do you think about the controversy surrounding Pitt President Wesley Posvar

What do you think about the tax exempt status of local hospitals and universities being challenged

What do you think should be done to improve the education system

What effect do you think incentives for grades and attendance will have on high school students

What is your reaction to the controversy surrounding the Duquesne Duke student newspaper

Would you be willing to pay higher taxes to increase teacher's salaries and improve their training

Entertainment

Entertainment is part of the Pittsburgh economy, and some fear that the 10% amusement tax is reducing the ability of the city to attract tourists.

The concert business has moved from Pittsburgh to outside the County to avoid a 10% amusement tax. This is also a concern of the various sports franchises. Downtown Pittsburgh has suffered.

Dialogue

Host Shelley Duffy and Gail Brewer-Giorgio, author of "Is Elvis Alive?" discussed the information she collected that definitely raises questions about the death of Elvis Presley.

Host Shelley Duffy and Gavin McCleod, star of "Love Boat" and actor, talks about cruising (Princess Lines), working on the Love Boat, and working on the "Mary Tyler Moore Show."

Host Shelley Duffy and John Wright, who developed "The Universal Almanac," talked about the most interesting facts and figures about everything from baseball to temperatures from all around the world.

Host Shelley Duffy and Larry Leamer, author of the controversial, unauthorized biography of Johnny Carson..."King Of The Night" talked about why he wrote the book and how it has affected his and Carson's lives.

This show is a repeat of the show aired on 3/30/91.

News

Ed and Lorraine Warren, authors of Ghost Hunters, talk about their career as ghost hunters, how they do it, and some of their strangest tales.

George Romero, Director, Laurel Entertainment, discussed rating system; many explicit films actually being put in circulation in guise of "R" rate movies. We need an "Adults" only category; films won't be censored for adults - kids can't view them.

John Anderson, author of "Physic Phenomena Unveiled" talks about his life as a warlock and why "magic" is a deceptive practice (for Halloween).

Lottery booth operator Bob Wiggim, Parkway Center Mall, talks about what lives have been like since lottery fever took over.

Louise Wannier, Vice President of Marketing and Business Development for Gemstar Corporation, talks about a new device called "VCR-Plus" which will program your VCR for you.

Rich Engler of DiCesare Engler talked about the new entertainment facility, The Sports and Entertainment Facility. He also talked about the new A.J. Palumbo Center.

Terry Murphy, State Lottery Bureau, talks about the record super fever jackpot drawing. She has tips for who ever wins the record 100 million dollars.

Tim Clark, Executive Editor of The Farmer's Almanac, talks about the book's purpose, and how it's filled with all its information.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A lot of great concerts have already been booked for Pittsburgh. Who would you like to see come to town

Are you glad the Monkees are coming to town

Bob Lowe has been accused of making a controversial video. Do you think publicity like that can hurt an actor's career

Do you feel the ratings system for movies should be up-dated

Do you lose respect for celebrities who are later found to have posed nude

Do you prefer Bruce Springsteen's older or more recent releases

Do you read romance novels? Is there a particular plot you enjoy? Ever envision yourself in a role

Do you think Geraldo Rivera's kiss and tell book will affect him

Do you think certain concerts should be held only at large, outdoor facilities

Do you think controversy surrounding Madonna's videos tends to help, rather than hurt, her public image

Do you think the movie industry is suffering a lot because of home videos

Do you think there are too many Hollywood awards shows

Does Bruce Springsteen symbolize anything to you

Even though the Emmys have been handed out, are there any that you would have handed out last night that weren't included in the nominations

Has the writers' strike affected your TV viewing habits

How do you feel about the new channel one which features commercials during the new show

If a popular musician ran for president, which one would you vote for

If you could get free tickets to any concert this summer, who would you like to see

If you could have your own TV show, what would it be like

If you could produce any television show, what would you put on the air

In light of the recent violence among the crew members of the band New Edition and Guy, do you think the concert tour should be re-scheduled in Pittsburgh

In your opinion, has the popularity of local bands dwindled

In your opinion, what's the state of music videos these days

Jim Hensen created so many wonderful muppet characters during his career. Which one is your favorite

Madonna's Truth or Dare movie opens tomorrow. What do you find most intriguing about the controversial singer

New Kids on the Block come to town tonight. Tell us why they're your idols

Now that Indiana Jones, Ghostbusters and Star Trek sequels have been released, which one is on your must see list this summer

Now that Milli Vanilli's been found out, what do you think should happen to them

Now that the movie war has heated up, which one would you like to see win at the box office

Now that the summer movies have been released, which one would you like to see

Should certain rock bands be barred from playing Pittsburgh

Should movie theaters have the right not to show certain films

Should records be rated, for sexually explicit, violent, or satanic lyrics

Should sexually explicit programs be banned from cable T.V.

Should the group The Grateful Dead be allowed to play again in Pittsburgh

Should there be a stamp with the image of Elvis distributed

Why do you think the Simpsons are so popular

The American Comedy awards are being handed out tonight. Who's your favorite comedian

The Emmys are being handed out Sunday. What picks are you making

The Golden Globe awards are being handed out tomorrow, do you think such honors are really all they are cracked up to be

The Grammy Awards are this evening. Do you think music has gotten better over the last 20 years

The Stones roll into town tonight. Why do you think groups like that are still popular after all these years

The networks have announced their new fall line-ups this week. Which old TV shows would you like to see put back on the schedule

The new Fall T.V. season kicks off this week. What shows will you be sure to watch

The new TV season is upon us. Do you think networks should be a little more careful when deciding what airs

The recent cover of TV Guide features a picture of Oprah Winfrey's face, and Ann Margert's body. If you could have a different face/body combination, what would it be

This fall, the Simpsons go up against the Cosby's on Thursday night. Which show will you watch

Tonight Cheers celebrates its 200th episode. What character is your favorite

Tonight is Oscar night. Which movies and actors get your vote

What artist do you think has made the greatest contribution to popular music in the last twenty years

What current news item are you sick of hearing about

What do you think about Jay Leno being named as Johnny Carson's successor

What do you think about Morton Downey's alleged attack and Phil Donahue's support of the claim

What do you think about coloring old movies

What do you think about musical artists who lip-sync during concerts

What do you think about revival tours from groups like the Who and the Rolling Stones

What do you think about the Dunn and O'Conner boycott of Saturday Night Live because Andred Dice Clay is hosting the show

What do you think about the controversy surrounding the new Madona, "Like a Prayer" video

What do you think about the crackdown on Two Live Crew's music

What do you think about the verdict in the obscenity trial of the 2 live crew

What do you think about unauthorized celebrity biographies that tell all

What do you think about warning labels on music with controversial labels

What is your favorite TV show of all time

What is your favorite magazine

What is your favorite television re-run

What is your reaction to the movie Platoon

What movie do you think deserves a golden raspberry award

What television shows can you do without

What type of music do you enjoy

What was the best movie you saw this past year

What's happened to Miami Vice

What's the best movie you've seen this summer

What's the best new T.V. show you've seen this fall

What's your favorite Christmas TV special

What's your favorite T.V. commercial

What's your favorite T.V. news program

What's your favorite cartoon character of all time

What's your favorite comic strip and why

What's your favorite new T.V. program

Who are among your choices for Academy Awards tonight

Who are your choices for Grammy Awards this year

Who do you think deserves a grammy award tonight

Who is on your list of Academy Award winners tonight

Who is the funniest person in show business

Who would you like to see in concert this summer

Who would you like to see in concert this year

Who's your all time favorite comedian

With the recent hit of Batman, what comic book hero would you like to see on the big screen

Would you like to see David Letterman move into Johnny Carson's slot

Would you like to see more, or fewer, mini series on television

Environment

The air in Pittsburgh has improved with the State's new emission standards. Pittsburgh was voted the most liveable city, and this can be directly credited to our environment. Some people outside Pittsburgh retain misconceptions of Pittsburgh as an old, dirty steel town. Campaigns like Clean Up Pittsburgh and making people aware of how things actually are will help.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and two experts discussed the need for high tech ways of controlling waste. They said that instead of chastizing those who are trying to run landfills, we should do everything we can to make sure we have adequate landfills.

Host Shelley Duffy and Annie Buckmann, from the National Resources Defense Council, talked about solving today's environmental problems and how we can help out.

Host Shelley Duffy and Bill Moore, Waste Management's Director, talked about recycling in PA and Mayor Sophie Masloff's idea ("one-box" method) that will be in effect next fall.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Jack Peterson of the University of Wisconsin discussed the problem of "sick building syndrome" or indoor air pollution. He explained what makes people sick, prevention, treatment, and tips for homeowners on ventilation.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Knowles, Chairman of Psychology Department at Duquesne University, talked about a unique approach to psychology taught at Duquesne, that looked at the impact humans have on the environment, instead of vice versa.

Host Shelley Duffy and Stephen Fesperman, environmental gardener, talked about gardening this summer, how you can have the perfect garden, plus tips on what to plant and when.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest discussed environmental issues and Earth day.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest discussed goals and programs of clean city committee and how each community involved has to be aware of the environmental changes.

Host Shelley Duffy and members of the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee discussed the goals of the group, how they reach them, and how residents can, and must, do their part to keep our city and country clean.

Host Shelly Duffy and John Brubaker of America's Road Team discussed the safety of trucks on the roadways. He talked about transporting hazardous chemicals safely and how motorists and truckers can and must work together on the highway.

Rebroadcast of the 4/28/90 show aired at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 4/21/90 at 7:00.

News

Donna Sagmeister, spokeswoman for Pittsburgh Water Dept., talks about the oil spill moving down the Allegheny River and how it's affecting everyone. Also, what to expect as the spills continues to make it way downstream.

Host and guest discuss guest's area of expertise. Goals and programs of clean city committee, how to each community is involved and aware of environmental changes.

John Kaus, the Deputy Director of Allegheny Counties' Emergency Management Agency, talks about the oil and fuel spill along the Allegheny River and how things have greatly improved.

John Miller, Chairman for Coalition for Scenic Beauty, expressed concern about increasing number of billboards in rural areas.

John Rangos, Jr., Chambers Development Company, expressed concern because a judge has limited the company's intake on trash until final decision can be reached about importing garbage from New Jersey.

Linda Morrow, representative of "Earth Day 1990 Coalition" in Pittsburgh, talks about why day's important, what the last Earth Day accomplished, and this one will be different.

Maribeth Rizzuto, the city's recycling coordinator, talks about the new plan just introduced by the Mayor.

Mayor Sophie Masloff talks about her recycling plan to take effect in September.

Penn State Home Horticulturist David Quatchak described what should be done to keep your lawn and plants from dying during the hot, dry weather and drought.

Pennsylvania Transportation Dept. spokesperson talked about the Smithfield Street Bridge closing; recently discovered crack.

Profession William Rathe Jay discussed the future of our garbage and where it is to be disposed of.

Roger Carrier of Chambers Development showed a concern that garbage from New Jersey might be dumped here.

Spokesman Bob Pandey, Chambers Development, denied that methane from Chamber's landfill in Monroeville caused a house to blow up. He said their evidence indicates the methane is coming from other sources.

Timothy Clark, executive director, Old Farmer's Almanac, reported that we will have more than normal snow this winter season, but by late February and through rest of winter it will be mostly wet and mild.

US Land & Transportation Manager for Dow Chemical, Bruce Williams, discussed rail safety when transporting hazardous chemicals; what's being done locally and federally to prevent accidents.

Pittsburgh Opinion

Are you enjoying the mild weather we've had or would you rather see a little Alaskan cold

Do you think forest fires should be allowed to burn themselves out

Do you think nuclear weapons plants are really safe

Do you think there's an immediate need for investigations of pipelines close to water drinking supplies

Even though the call is voluntary, are you beginning to conserve water in light of the oil spill

Has the Alaskan oil spill caused you to think twice before pulling into an Exxon gas station

Has the current dry spell affected you

Has the current water problem affected you

Has your neighborhood changed, for better or worse

Have you been showering with friends, so to speak

How are you coping with the water crisis

How concerned are you about ground water contamination

How concerned are you about toxic waste dumps

In light of the recent controversy surrounding tuna, will you be more likely to buy "dolphin-Safe" tuna in the future

In your opinion, do you think the river will ever be the same again

Just how cold it is in Pittsburgh

Should Pittsburgh have a pigeon control program

Should more be done on the Federal level to clean up the air

Should the federal government help with the cleanup on the nation's worst oil spill in Alaska

Should there be stricter penalties for illegally dumping toxic waste

The Senate passed a clean air bill yesterday Even though it calls for the loss of thousands of jobs, are you still in favor of such a bill

The governor of California wants to know why some bridges collapsed during Tuesday's earth quake. Do you think an investigation is necessary

Union Carbide trucks deadly methyl isocyanate gas thru Pennsylvania on Interstate 79. Does that bother you

What are you doing to help the environment

What are your feelings on nuclear power plants

What do you think about Michele Madoff's noise reduction law

What do you think about all this mild weather, in the middle of winter

What do you think about city council's new "one bag" recycling proposal

What do you think are the biggest environmental concerns we face today

What was your reaction to the whole oil spill-water shortage mess

What's your impression of the way Ashland Oil has handled the fuel spill crisis

Will the Mon River ever be the same

Winter doesn't officially arrive until Thursday. But we're seeing a real blast of it now. How could would you say it is

Would you be willing to pay higher city taxes to help overhaul the city's aging water system

Would you like to see the old steel mills torn down

Family

The family circle has deteriorated. Many children need answers, and cannot get them with both parents working. Lower income and poor families need a way to rise above their present situations.

WBZZ has a large young adult audience, and targets the mothers and fathers of this age group. Many of WBZZ's activities center around the family.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and Nancy Samalin, author of "Loving Your Child Is Not Enough," discussed positive ways of interacting with your children.

Host Liz Randolph and two counselors from the Whale's Tale, a place where runaways and other young people can go for shelter and counseling discussed that more kids are kicked out of their homes or dealing with abuse because they have no place to go.

Host Liz Randolph and two representatives of "Toughlove", a self help program for parents who are troubled by teenage behavior, talked about the services the program offers.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Marie Ford Reilly, a consultant who works with the Parental Stress Center. Topics discussed included the scope of the problem of parental stress locally and some strategies parents can use to prevent abuse.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Joan Haley-Shure who offered some very effective, practical advice on parenting and pinpointed the adolescent years and how to cope.

Host Liz Randolph talked with "Norm" and "Chuck" of Gambler's Anonymous about the help available for compulsive gamblers and their families.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Vickie Sirokman, a spokesperson for the Children's Home of Pittsburgh, a local adoption agency. She discussed how tough it is to adopt these days.

Host Liz Randolph talks to divorce lawyer, Peggy Ferber, about how to prepare for divorce, what to do, and how to protect yourself.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dick Brzeczek and his wife Liz, authors of "How We Saved Our Marriage," talked about how adultery nearly ruined their lives, how they saved their marriage and how you can, too!

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Harvey Weiner, author of "How to Talk to Your Child," discussed ways to communicate with your child from birth to teenagers and adults--how to be a "conversational family."

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Ray Garend, author of "Back to Parenting," talked about what makes a family strong, he said, "It's important to go back to the source, parents themselves, for information, not the so called experts."

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Ronald Levant talked about the problems facing fathers today and how they can address these problems.

Host Shelley Duffy and Judith Levy, author of Mom Remembers shares special Mother's Day memories and talks about her new book which helps preserve the history of the family. She explains how the book does that, just in time for Mother's Day.

Host Shelley Duffy and Judith Levy, author of Mom Remembers, shares special Mother's Day memories and talks about her new book which helps preserve the history of the family. She explains how the book does that, just in time for Mother's Day.

Host Shelley Duffy and Roberta Meyers, author of "Listen To The Heart," talked about creating a rich family environment and how to resolve communication problems within families.

Host Shelley Duffy and author Delia Ephron take a humorous look at motherhood and family life on Mother's Day.

Host Shelley Duffy and author Jackie Gordon talked about the difficulty of a parent/child relationship; how to deal with teens; and the added dilemma of a dying child.

Host Shelley Duffy and author of "Living Together, Feeling Alone," Dr. Dan Kiley, talked about what women often feel in marriages, even though they are living with someone 24 hours a day.

Host Shelley Duffy and author of "Mainstay..Help For The Spouses of the Chronically Ill," Maggie Strong talked about how she's learned to cope with her life with a chronically ill husband.

Host Shelley Duffy and the author of "Private Lies," Dr. Frank Pittman, talked about infidelity, why it occurs, and how to avoid it.

Host Shelley Duffy interviewed single mom "Chris" on being a single parent.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 3/9/91 at 7:00.

News

Dr. Jeffry Gryf, author of "Single Father" said that some corporations are now granting paternity leave.

Dr. Joseph Spidel, Population Crises Committee, said that while birth rates dwindle in industrialized nations, third world birth rates continue to sky rocket.

Spokesman for "Partners with Parents", discussed fact that group offers free booklet to parents having trouble explaining facts of life to their children.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A state lawmaker wants to ban all "surrogate mother" contracts in Pennsylvania. Would you support such legislation

Are parents losing authority over their kids

Are pregnant teenagers bad girls? What are your feelings on unwed mothers and the fathers involved

Are surrogate mothers ethical? Should they be allowed to carry another woman's child

Are you a good parent? What makes a good parent

As you think of your father this Sunday, what is it he taught you about life that sticks with you

Can you talk to your parents about personal subjects

Do you agree with surrogate motherhood

Do you play with your kids more than your parents played with you

Do you support the idea of engaged couples signing prenuptial agreements. Why or why not

Do you think communication between parents and children is easier today

Do you think joint custody helps or hurts children of divorce

Do you think the couple who just found out their real daughter was switched at birth ten years ago should now be able to see her

Do you think unwed fathers have the same custody rights as the unwed mothers

Do you trust your spouse

Father's Day is Sunday. What are you doing special for your dad

How do you like your spouse's family

How many of your children were planned

How much input do you have in family decisions

How should household chores be divided

In divorce cases, is there prejudice against men when awarding custody of children

Is divorce bad for your children

Is the family unit as strong now as it was when you were a kid

Should adopted children over 18 be allowed to get information on their real parents

Should children of parents who use illegal drugs report their parents to the police? Why or why not

Should foster parent candidates be screened more carefully

Should men who refuse to pay child support be jailed

Should professional licenses, like a doctor's degree, obtained during marriage be considered community property in a divorce

Should sperm bank babies know who their biological fathers are

Should the Government mandate family leave

Should the father have a say in an abortion

The Reagan administration is preparing to challenge the U.S. Supreme Court decision allowing legal abortions. How do you feel about that

What are you doing special for your mother on Mother's Day

What do you admire most about your mother

What do you think about the controversial custody battle for embryos

What do you think of pre-nuptial agreements

What special memory comes to mind as you think of your mother this Mother's Day

What special qualities come to mind as you remember your father on Father's Day

Which one household chore would you most want done free for a year

Why do you think people of both sexes are waiting longer to marry

Government

The tax burden is too great, and adjustments are needed if Pittsburgh is to become competitive in attracting new industry. Regional government should be explored. Some believe that government tends to obstruct, rather than welcome, development.

There has been continuing debate about county vs. city government. Pittsburgh's 2.5% wage tax is higher than that in surrounding communities, causing people to move to lower taxed Allegheny County communities.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Pittsburgh Controller Tom Flaherty. He explained his position on several controversial issues including an investigation by the controller's office that led to the dismissal of the public safety director.

Host Liz Randolph talked to George David Weiss, president of the Songwriters guild, about home audio taping. He is among those urging Congress to pass a law that would stamp a small royalty on each 90 minute high quality audio tape sold.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Pittsburgh City Councilwoman Michell Madoff about problems facing the city including: the need for more jobs, future development, taxes, the water department, and her future political aspiration.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Pittsburgh city councilman Jack Wagner. Points of the discussion included: Dog Racing within the city limits, the pros and cons, ranging from increased tax revenues to the perils of gambling.

Host Shelley Duffy and Astronaut, Edward Gibson, talks about life on Skylab and in space for more than three months. He also talks about the space program and its future, and his new book "Reach."

News

Bernie Burns, Pittsburgh Firefighters Union President, commented on decision by City Council to sustain mayor's veto of bill which would have reinstated 8 fire companies eliminated in a cost-cutting measure two months ago.

Bill Carosell, president of Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, discussed fact that State Supreme Court upheld $500,000 cap on damages city or municipality has to pay when negligence causes injury or death.

City Councilwoman Michele Madoff talks about her idea on how to pay for lighting downtown bridges. She suggests everyone "adopting" a light bulb!

Controller Tom Flaherty discussed situation in which local television station alleged that city employees were spending much of their eight-hour work days eating and shopping.

Dick Thornburgh, former Pennsylvania Governor, speculated on possibility that he may be a candidate for national office, possibly the Vice-Presidency in future.

Dr. James, Dean, Carnegie Mellon University's College of Engineering, discussed viability of shuttle as the best way to reach space.

Faith Gallo, Pittsburgh Magazine publisher said that Pittsburgh Mayor Richard Caliguri has been named "Pittsburgher of the Year" because of his selfless efforts to make Pittsburgh a great place to live.

Frank Luchinno, Allegheny County Controller, said that board members James Creehan, Jim O'Malley and Jeep DePasquale have abused their power and have been asked to resign their positions.

Gene Terrance, Pittsburgh's Controller's office, talked about how reinstated employees were locked out of their offices by a member of Controller Tom Flaherty's staff because he refuses to honor the reinstatements.

Governor Bob Casey discussed how his administration will dissuade young people from leaving the state; how a new expressway leading from Pittsburgh to Mon Valley will encourage the establishment of new business there.

Governor Dick Thornburgh explained how several million in state funds is distributed to four advanced technology companies in Pittsburgh area, as well as how new high tech companies are boosting local economy.

Janet Cator of the National Abortion Rights Action League of PA talked about her opposition to Robert Bork's nomination to the Supreme Court.

John Estacian expressed his disgust with the Reagan administration's handling of POW's and MIA's.

Michelle Madoff, Pittsburgh City Councilwoman, commented on debate about whether city should reinstate 8 fire companies which had recently been eliminated by the city.

Michelle Madoff, Pittsburgh City Councilwoman, talked about how disgusted she is at existence of sex line telephone services and described her visit to one in downtown Pittsburgh.

Mike Roark, Mayor of Charleston, West Virginia, resigned his position after pleading guilty to 6 counts of cocaine possession.

Paul McWilliams, Engineer, provided impressions on shuttle - how it works, safety features, NASA's safety record, and that NASA doesn't know what caused shuttle to explode.

Pittsburgh Controller Tom Flaherty released a report indicating that city employees have been doing a lot of traveling at taxpayers expense.

Scott Meyers of Shadyside Hospital talked about the death of Pittsburgh's Mayor, the efforts to save him and the surprise and shock of his sudden death.

Tom Flaherty, Allegheny County Controller, discussed why his office hadn't found $723,000 lost in county files for several years.

Tom Flaherty, City Controller, felt that with the end of federal revenue sharing fast approaching, the area should lobby for state revenue sharing.

Tom Flaherty, Pittsburgh Controller, discussed a controversial proposal to raise revenue in Pittsburgh by charging city "bigwigs" $4/day for parking spaces they now get for free.

U.S. Senator Arlen Specter talked about Oliver North and how he assumed the President knew about the diversion of funds.

Pittsburgh Opinion

A new bill says city residents must be considered first for certain jobs. Do you agree

After all that been said and done, do you still trust President Reagan

Can you relate any IRS horror stories

Do you think Attorney General Edwin Meese should resign

Do you think President Bush will be able to keep his promise of no new taxes

Do you think it's necessary to look into the background of would be elected officials

Do you think the benefits of launching a space probe like Galileo outweigh the risks

Do you think the billions of tax dollars spent on the space program is a good investment

Do you think the city and county should pay for renovations Edward DeBartolo wants made at the Civic Arena

Do you think the money we spend on the shuttle program is worth it

Do you think there should be a limit on terms in office for Government officials

Has the Ben Woods case affected your opinion of City Government

How much do you trust the federal government

If you could be president, would you want the job

If you were President Bush, what would you do to cut government spending

In light of the recent controversy surrounding his personal travels, do you think White House Chief of Staff John Sununu should resign

Now that Iran Contra charges have been dropped against Oliver North, what do you think he should do next

Recent surveys show a major popularity decline for president Bush. How do you think he's handling things

Should Allegheny County Commission give raises to top county employees including themselves

Should David Souter be required to reveal his position on abortion before being confirmed to the Supreme Court

Should Pittsburgh's tax policies be overhauled

Should President Bush seek the approval of Congress before declaring war in the Persian Gulf

Should Supreme Court nominees be asked how they'll vote on certain issues

Should all types of gambling be legalized in Pennsylvania

Should companies offering recorded phone messages for a fee be regulated

Should lawmakers approve the sale of wine in grocery and convenience stores

Should the government have a tax amnesty day? During which taxpayers could pay back taxes without the threat of penalty

Should we go on with the space program

State lottery officials are thinking of extending the drawing to Sunday. Do you think its a good idea

The President's new budget is being criticized. If you were in charge, where would you spend the money

Voyager Two makes its trip to neptune today. What do you think of all the money spent on the space program

What do you think about Governor Casey's proposed income tax hike

What do you think about the City's plans to erect a 90 foot sculpture downtown at a cost of half a million dollars

What do you think about the U.S. Census

What do you think is Mayor Richard Caliguiri's biggest contribution to Pittsburgh

What do you think of the Mayor's plan to cut the amusement tax and raise the occupation tax

What do you think of the budget deficit reduction plan

What qualities make up a good president

What would you like to see our new city Government accomplish this term

What's more important, cutting the federal deficit, or maintaining present local levels of services and taxes

What's your feedback on Robert Bork, President Reagan's nominee for the Supreme Court

What's your reaction when you hear about some of the goings-on in city council

Would you fly in the shuttle, if asked today

Would you like to see Riverboat gambling become legal in Pennsylvania

Would you recommend any changes in NASA's operating procedures

Handicapped

Many organizations target this group through education and assistance. These people have special needs, and education plays an important role in this area.

WBZZ is very active in fund raising, awareness programs, and community involvement efforts in this area.

Dialogue

Host Liz Randolph and counselors from the Rehabilitation Institute of Pittsburgh discussed how toys can be converted for children with physical and mental disabilities.

Host Shelley Duffy and Claude Gagnon, the Director of the new Pittsburgh-made film "The Kid Brother," talked about what it was like to work with Kenny Easterday, the crippled 14 year old from Aliquippa.

Host Shelley Duffy and Needia Henderson of the Allegheny Association for Retarded Citizens talked about the ARC convention in Pittsburgh, and how the Federal and State governments have cut budgets that provide help

Host Shelley Duffy and organizers, John Conologue, Jenny Gatto, and Ken Turner of the University of Pittsburgh, talked about this year's "Hand-In-Hand" Festival, devoted to the physically and mentally handicapped to promote awareness.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 3/31/90 at 7:00.

News

Ken Rogue, president of the North Hills Jaycees, discussed the opening of a new nature trail for the blind at North Park. Trail is specifically designed for the blind and small children.

Marilyn Marks, spokeswoman for Vocational Rehabilitation Center, announced that VRC received federal grant of $150,000 for use in training mildly disabled, handicapped young people for jobs.

Pittsburgh Opinion

How do you feel when you see able-bodied people parking in spaces reserved for the handicapped

Is there enough accessibility for the handicapped

Health

Health care insurance is very expensive, and Pittsburgh has an excessive number of residents who have no health insurance. Necessary services for the elderly, young children, the emotionally troubled and handicapped are not sufficiently known.

The media can do much to publicize the services which are available, and to help the organizations which provide those services to raise necessary funds.

Dialogue

Host Hope Daniels and Dr. Tom Ferguson, author of the Smokers Book of Health, discussed his positive approach to helping people kick the habit.

Host Liz Randolph and Anita Sinicrope, Pittsburgh Educational Network for Eating Disorders, discussed how anorexia and bullimia are literally killing people. The problem is frightening, especially among teenagers and young adults.

Host Liz Randolph and Bob Smith, Safety Director of the Dow Chemical Company discussed the latest in safety equipment.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Alan Silverman of the Pittsburgh Skin and Cancer Clinic talked about the fact that skin cancer has reached a tremendous epidemic proportion in the U.S. and he attributes the increase to increased sun exposure.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Bruce Smith talked about the new medications now available for ulcers.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Carl Shrodes, one of the top internists in the Pittsburgh area, discussed the role the internist plays in our medical history; the doctor-patient relationship.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Jerry Barna discussed the latest in reconstructive and cosmetic dentistry, the new trends in dentistry.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Otilio Randall, associate professor of medicine at Howard University's College of Medicine talked about high blood pressure and the heredity and environmental factors that aggravate the conditions.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Ron Friedman, child psychologist, discussed his new book, "The Hyperactive Child," and a relatively new syndrome called Attention Deficit Disorders.

Host Liz Randolph and Dr. Seymour Sabesin, Director of the Digestive Diseases Department at Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Chicago, discussed common myths surrounding ulcers, a disease that kills 8,000 people a year

Host Liz Randolph and Ed Marasco, assistant administrative director of trauma services at Pittsburgh's Presbyterian Hospital, pointed out the need for a regional and national trauma network.

Host Liz Randolph and Lisa Grey, Director of Public Relations at D.T. Watson Rehabilitation Center for Adults and Children, described the various unique treatments available at the facility.

Host Liz Randolph and Margo Marsh, assistant director of services for Arthritis Foundation, told of upcoming fundraisers and helped dispell the myth that arthritis is an "old person's" disease.

Host Liz Randolph and Reverend David Elfe, a consultant to the Western Pennsylvania Coalition for Addictive Diseases, discussed the coalition's new hotline to help those who are affected by the behavior of somone who is addicted.

Host Liz Randolph and social workers from Pittsburgh's West Penn Hospital discussed a new program designed to help those who are grieving. The most important thing is to talk about your feelings.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Betty Havryluk, Vice-President of the Hospital Council of Western PA., discussed the major changes in the health care industry, specifically, the local impact of 2 year old Federal program designed to lower costs.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. Ian Holtzman, a neonatologist at Pittsburgh's McGee Women's Hospital, about the effects that sun exposure has on kids.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. James King of the University of Pittsburgh about the topic of depression and the ways in which one can become depressed.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. John Doyle, a local neurologist, about Muscular Distrophy. It is still not known what causes MS and there is no known cure.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. John Durrant, head of Speech and Hearing at Pittsburgh's Eye and Ear Hospital. Among the topics discussed was ear damage caused by long periods of exposure to loud music.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Dr. Peter Hanson, author of the book, "The Joy of Stress," who offered some excellent tips on how to make stress a positive thing in your life.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed Tom Drogge, the only Rolfer in Pittsburgh. Rolfing is an innovative, intensive form of massage that involves the actual rearranging of the muscle structure. He discussed the process, training, and who benefits from it.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed an official from Pittsburgh's Central Blood Bank who tried to dispell the myths about AIDS and blood donations which have caused blood donations to drop off.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed director of Employee Assistance at St. John's Hospital Beth Brown about AIDS- how society has had to change in regard to it, myths that exist, and stories founded on ignorance.

Host Liz Randolph interviewed founder of the National Abortion Rights Action League, Judith Witticombe, on the pro choice side of the abortion issue.

Host Liz Randolph talked about a program called "Those Who Wait" which helps the families of transplant patients.

Host Liz Randolph talked to Dana Jounrsay, director of education at Planned Parenthood, who detailed what the group is doing to stop the spread of AIDS.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Dr. Dorothy Smith, author of "Understanding Prescription Drugs," about the pros and cons of generic versus prescription drugs.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Dr. Michael Thase about the difference between feeling blue and being clinically depressed, how to recognize the signs, how to treat it, and the fact that depression is often hereditary.

Host Liz Randolph talked with Sheila Lechner, coordinator of the American Cancer Society's Residential Program, which is an educational, door to door, fund raising effort.

Host Liz Randolph talked with an experienced midwife and expectant mom about a new birthing center that just opened in Pittsburgh.

Host Liz Randolph talked with guests about the message that you can choose smoking or health. They shared some new data that indicates that smoking should be limited in public places.

Host Liz Randolph talked with the president and vice-president of the Association for Non-Smokers Rights of Pennsylvania about legislation to limit smoking in public places.

Host Liz Randolph, Dr. Bill Brandon of Shadyside Hospital, and social worker Cindy Klemanski of Presbyterian Hospital, discussed AIDS -- the facts about AIDS, how the victims feel, and the various support groups available in the Pittsburgh area.

Host Shelley Duffy acknowledged March as National Kidney month by talking with guests about kidney disease, its effects, and the latest treatments.

Host Shelley Duffy and Andre Watson of Planned Parenthood discussed how young men should be more involved with teen pregnancy prevention; AIDS and teens; and homosexuality conflicts.

Host Shelley Duffy and Beverly Evans, Program Director of Duquesne University's Autism program, talked about the disability and how the hit movie, "Rain Man," has helped bring about more awareness to it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Central Blood Bank President, Bill Portman, and Dr. Joseph Kiss, acting Medical Director, talked about the Blood Bank, the safety of blood supplies, and AIDS testing and infection.

Host Shelley Duffy and Charlie Lavallo of the Child Care Program for Western Pennsylvania discussed the problem of lack of health care for children.

Host Shelley Duffy and Denise Austin, host of Staying Fits AES.P.N. Show, talks about fitness and her new pregnancy workout tape and program.

Host Shelley Duffy and Doctors Richard and Rachel Hellik talked about their new book, "The Carbohydrate Addicts Diet," how some people are addicted to carbohydrates, why it may not be their fault, and what to do about it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Benjamin Levy, Director of National Research Corporation in Connecticut, talked about gallstone disease, how it's treated and how it's diagnosed.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Elliot Abravanel, author of "Anti-Craving Weight Loss Diet," talked about how to eliminate cravings so you can stick to a diet and really lose the weight.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Freeman, an optometrist, talked about "Save Your Vision Week," the various problems a person can suffer that will lead to impaired vision, and how to prevent it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Giller, co-author of "Maximum Metabolism" explained how to change your metabolism so you can lose weight and keep it off.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Jack Paradise talked about the latest treatments to combat ear infections and how to avoid them.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Julian Bailes of Allegheny General Hospital talked about the new program "Feet First" being kicked off to promote awareness of how to reduce spinal cord injuries due to diving accidents each summer.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Kenneth Cooper and Neil Gordon talked about coronary heart disease and how people bounce back and avoid it all together.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Mary Martini and Cathy Rosick of the American Cancer Society talked about skin cancer, summer protection, and free screening you can get to determine if you are risk.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Michael Kline from Boston University Medical Hospital discussed "silent heart disease," how it got that name, what can be done to prevent and treat it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Nelson Harrison, clinical psychologist, discussed the power of the mind and what a small portion of it we really use. He stressed that the most important thing to do is to relax.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Richard Dashieff, Director of the Epilepsy Center at the University of Pittsburgh, talked about epilepsy, why it's still a mysterious disorder, its treatments, and causes.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Richard Nelson of Geriatric Care at West Penn Hospital and Ellen Berliner, President of Alzheimer's Association, discussed informing the public about the disease.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Richard Nelson of Geriatric Care at West Penn Hospital and Ellen Berliner, President of Alzheimer's Association in Allegheny County, talked about the disease, its effects, and what the future looks like for treatment.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Robert Kowalski, author of the "Eight Week Cholesterol Cure," talked about the dangers of cholesterol and how to cure it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Robert McDonald, of Pitts Clinical Hypertension Department, and Kara Anthony, a registered Dietician, talked about high blood pressure, its effects, treatments, and ways to avoid it.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Ronald Herberman of the Pittsburgh Cancer Institute talked about a new treatment for cancerous tumors which is being tested on humans for the first time ever here in Pittsburgh.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Stuart Berger, author of Forever Young, tells us how to stay younger longer by following some easy tips and techniques.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Susan Brown of Caraught Laboratories discussed the disease "Hib," and the new vaccine now available to young children.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Symor Diamond, founder of National Headache Foundation, talked about different kinds of headaches, when to go to a doctor, and how they should be treated.

Host Shelley Duffy and Dr. Tom Ferguson talked about a way to quit smoking that doesn't nag you or use drugs. There were tips on how to do it yourself at your own pace.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jack Robinette, the President of the Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania, talked about the council, the tax exempt controversy, and how it helps develop the nursing field by making quality its number one priority.

Host Shelley Duffy and Jerry Halperin, Executive Director of U.S. Pharmacopia, talked about drugs that shouldn't be used together and what you should do if there are side affects, what the safest and most dangerous drugs are.

Host Shelley Duffy and Joe Graedon, Co-Author of Graedon's Best Medicine, talks about home remedies and other treatments for everyday problems. Also, some not so common problems like Schizophrenia.

Host Shelley Duffy and Kit Castle, author of "Katherine, It's Time," talked about having multiple personalities and what it has done to her life.

Host Shelley Duffy and Lisa Lefferts, of the Center for Science in the Public Interest, talked about the book, "Food, Eating Wisely in a Risky World" and how to determine what foods are safest in our world today.

Host Shelley Duffy and New York Dietician and Counselor, Risk Platt, talked about nutrition and how to separate history from "fad" when learning to eat well.

Host Shelley Duffy and Peggy Hynes of P.P.G. Industries, talked about the effects of ultra-violet rays for adults and children, especially on the eyes, and how proper lenses can help.

Host Shelley Duffy and Peggy Hynes, of PPG Industries, talked about a new type of sunglasses that protect the eye. She explained why it is so important and how these glasses help in the process.

Host Shelley Duffy and Peggy Stewart, author of "Good Health," discussed watching your intake of sodium and cholesterol and what foods to watch and avoid.

Host Shelley Duffy and Priss Ebert, the Director of Community Relations with the Children's Home, and Carol Jordon, Team Work Advisory Chairperson and March of Dimes Board Member, talked about March of Dimes and Walk America 91.

Host Shelley Duffy and Ray Oliver, head strength coach at Pitt and Nick Hymerman, assistant coach, discussed the use of steroids and other drugs in high schools, colleges, and professional sports.

Host Shelley Duffy and Richard Garber, Director of the "Mr. Yuck" program at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh's Institute of Educational Communications, talked about poisoning and how we can prevent it from happening to our children.

Host Shelley Duffy and Rita Market, director of the International Anti-Euthanasia Task Force, described some of the misconceptions about euthanasia, what it really is and what her group is doing to fight for dying people's rights.

Host Shelley Duffy and Robert Olson, author of "Balanced Nutrition," talked about the overpress and publicity of Cholesterol and explained why it is over reported.

Host Shelley Duffy and Steve Sokol, known as the World's "Fittest Man" because of over 25 world records in endurance which he holds, talked about why it's so important to monitor your heart, especially when you are just starting out.

Host Shelley Duffy and William Duffey, a hypnotist, discussed hypnotism, what it is about, how he's used it to help solve police cases and even put some people under for surgery. He also discussed ghost-chasing, clairvoyance, and reincarnation.

Host Shelley Duffy and actress Nancy Walker talked about heartburn, what you can do to prevent it or get rid of it, and her career.

Host Shelley Duffy and author Michael Castleman, who wrote "The Healing Herbs," talked about herbs that can heal, the real story about them, and how you can learn to grow your own.

Host Shelley Duffy and authors of "The Two Day Diet," Dr. Glenn Cooper and Tessa Cooper talked about why their diet works, how it works, and who should be on it.

Host Shelley Duffy and food consultant, Diane Thomas, talked about February "Beef Month" in the nation, creative recipes, facts, and myths about beef.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest talked about Heart Disease.

Host Shelley Duffy and guest talked about health and olive oil.

Host Shelley Duffy and guests discussed the hospital council, nursing shortages, and the tax exempt status of hospitals.

Host Shelley Duffy and the Reverend Ross LeCompte talked about "attitudinal healing," how avoiding negative thoughts, combined with medicine and doctor visits can heal everything from stress to deadly diseases.

Host Shelley Duffy talked about how to monitor your heart while exercising.

Host Shelley Duffy talked to American Heart Association Vice President Mike Prigance and Dr. Fenton Mitchell, a cardiologist with West Penn Hospital about the association, heart disease, prevention, and treatment. February is National Heart Month.

Host Shelley and Dr. Howard Mark discussed how to overcome "dentist phobia"; overall care for the teeth and what's ahead in dentistry.

Rebroadcast of show aired on 4/20/91 at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of show aired on 5/6/90 at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:00 on 1/28/90.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:00 on 5/25/91.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:00 on 6/22/91.

Rebroadcast of the show aired at 7:00 on 6/29/91.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 3/24/90 at 6:30.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 3/31/90 at 7:30.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 4/14/90 at 7:30.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 4/21/91 at 7:30.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 4/6/91 at 7:30.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 5/18/91 at 7:00.

Rebroadcast of the show aired on 5/18/91 at 7:30.

This is a repeat of the show aired on 2/16/91.

This show is a repeat of the show aired on 3/16/91

This show was a repeat of the show aired on 2/23/91.

News

Anita Sinicrope, Pittsburgh Education Network for Eating Disorders, reported that one of every 200 teenage girls suffers from an eating disorder. PENED distributes information on such illnesses, provides speakers, counseling and support groups.

Ann Schwartzwalder, Central Blood Bank of Pittsburgh, discussed fact that there is little chance that anyone in area who received a blood transfusion between 1977 and 1985 was exposed to AIDS, she feels it is a good idea to be tested.

Author of Out of the Blues, Dr. Jay Cleve, talks about beating the blues, especially the "Monday Morning" blues. He tells us what we can do to help avoid them.

Beverly Robinson, Central Blood Bank, talks about the need for type "O" blood at local hospitals. She explains why the shortage is so severe at this point.

Bill Gillespie, director of Department of Forestry of West Virginia, discussed how smoke from massive forest fires is causing health problems for West Virginia's elderly.

Central Blood Bank president talked about the current shortage of blood at the blood bank.

Dietician of St. Francis Medical Center talked about how to control over-eating during the holidays.

Doctor from the Burn Trauma Center at West Penn Hospital talked about National Fire Prevention Week (10/10-14); gave tips to avoid being burned, what to do if burned, and what to do if fire breaks out at home or the office

Donald Denny, Pittsburgh Transplant Foundation, after resignation, discussed that doctors managing foundation were sometimes playing favorites. Needed were not getting needed organ transplants. Following up, Presbyterian Hospital announces changes.

Donna Tabor of the Central Blood Bank informed us that blood bank has changed its procedures and computer screening after a mistake that caused two patients to receive a blood transfusion possibly tainted with AIDS antibodies.

Dr. Alan Silverman discussed the topic of skin cancer in the United States.

Dr. Benjamin Idleman, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Southwestern PA, talked about experimental drug that had been written up in medical journal that seems to relieve symptoms in patients with mildest form of MS.

Dr. Easton Chawdry, Veterinary Advisor, Allegheny County Health Department, discussed problem of feeding pigeons in public places and a health hazard likely to develop.

Dr. Gene Weinberg, PA State Health Department, reports an increase in the number of women dying from lung cancer in the mid Atlantic, West Coast and Florida.

Dr. Jack Fletcher of the Miami University Medical Center, discussed the results of a study on marijuana use. Findings indicate that prolonged intense use of drug can lead to forgetfulness and impair concentration.

Dr. Jack Harclerod, researcher on marijuana abuse, Bucknell University, reports that regular use of marijuana among teenagers may delay sexual maturation by depressing production of reproductive hormones.

Dr. Joshua Perper, county coroner, discussed new I.D. techniques adopted by Mercy Hospital after experts identified remains in hospital laundry as those of a monkey. They were later determined to be human.

Dr. Lawrence Kingsley discussed prevention of AIDS in gay and bisexual men.

Dr. Leon Warsaw, New York Business group on health, talks about stress on the job and how it can be avoided.

Dr. Margaret Ragni, Spokesdoctor/Central Blood Bank of Pittsburgh, discussed drop-off in blood donations since "AIDS" scare. Dr. Ragni emphasized impossibility of contracting AIDS by giving blood - Blood Bank called and said more people came to donate

Dr. Paul Paris from Presbyterian University Hospital talked about the correlation between the variation in temperatures and weather conditions and the flu.

Dr. Robert Olsen, author of "Balanced Nutrition, Beyond the Cholesterol Scare", talks about why the media and doctors have made a big problem out of cholesterol levels, when in fact, most people don't have to worry.

Dr. William Goldfarb, West Penn Hospital Burn Unit, discussed how to avoid summertime burns (incorrect use of grills and filling lawn mowers with gas while still running).

Ellen Sweet, Health Editor Ms. Magazine, talked about a study did that determined which women are most likely to become addicted to drugs, alcohol, etc. Those trying to balance family and career tend to have more problems with addictions.

Gary Stoner, AIDS Task Force, assured us that money for AIDS research is being spent in the best way.

Guermo Cole, County Health Department, does not feel that prison guards need to know when inmates have AIDS because it is not transmitted by casual contact.

Helen Cindrich, executive director, People Concerned For The Unborn Child, discussed group's plans to lobby Senators Heinz & Spector, Congressman Doug Walgren.

Jack Fedor, Chairman of the Rubber Ducky Race, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, talks about the unique event to kickoff the Three Rivers Regatta...designed to raise money for cancer research.

Jack Robinette, Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania, discussed proposal by Pittsburgh City Councilman, James O'Malley, to put 4% tax on those using hospitals in city. City-funded municipal hospitals should be created if city taxes hospital user Jay, "The Juiceman" Kordich, tells us what juices can help you prevent and/or cure illnesses this flu season.

Jean Langen, of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, talked of finding a cure for the disease.

John Pastor, VP of the Prison Union, said that the health department should inform all prison guards when an inmate has AIDS.

Karen Miller-Kovach, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, talked about some precautions that should be taken when coloring and eating Easter eggs.

Lynn McMahon, spokesperson for Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, discussed a rare five organ transplant and how doctors are cautiously optimistic about the recovery of three month old Tabatha Foster

Lynn McMahon, spokesperson for Children's Hospital, expressed the feelings of the staff following the death of liver transplant patient Ronnie DeSillers.

Lynn McMahon, spokesperson for Children's Hospital, reported that liver transplant patient Ronnie DeSillers has pneumonia and an infected pancreas, but that he is currently undergoing a third liver transplant operation.

Mark Pollock, Pittsburgh City Councilman, supports legislation that would limit smoking in public places.

Marla West, Children's Home of Pittsburgh said that the home focuses on infant adoption and high-risk premature infants. They maximize potential of children who begin life with medical problems.

Nancy Mace, spokeswoman for the Pittsburgh Association for Alzheimers Disease, said that there is a need for a national network to support families of Alzheimers Disease victims.

Pat Crawford, spokeswoman, Pittsburgh School Board, discussed having Wellness Clinics in schools; birth control in schools was another debated issue.